Topic : Manipulative Therapy in Spinal Misalignment.

Date: 16/10/2021

Time: 9.30A.M.-10.30 A.M.

Resource person: Dr. Maneesh Arora (PT), Prof. and Dean SBS University, Dehradun.

PLATFORM: Google Meet.

This webinar begun with the introduction of the resource person by Dr. Gaurav Bhatnagar, Professor and HOD, Department of Musculoskeletal Physiotherapy, MIP COPT, Latur. The presentation covered the topic Manipulative Therapy in Spinal Misalignment, from introduction about the back pain and various musculoskeletal problems due to spinal misalignment. He stressed on finding the root cause of the problem by assessing and analyzing it and then treating it. He explained various causes of the misalignment, which includes tightness of fascia, long sustained poor postures and muscle imbalance causing positional faults. He also explained about static measurements and motion palpation and had given video demonstration on the assessment techniques of pelvic asymmetry and the manipulative therapy to correct the misalignment. He emphasized on the importance of exercises in maintaining the corrections after manipulative therapy.

The webinar was followed by vote of thanks by Dr. Neha Meshram. The webinar received positive feedback from the participants. The webinar was attended by national and overseas participants. E- Certificates were mailed to the participants.

THE WORKSHOP ON STUDY DESIGN AND SAMPLE SIZE DETERMINATION

Organized by: Maharashtra Institute Of Physiotherapy in Association With Department Of Community Medicine, MIMSR Medical College, Latur

Date & Time: 21.04.2022, 9am-5pm.

Targeted Audience: Physiotherapy Faculties, UG and PG students.
Dental Faculties and PG students.

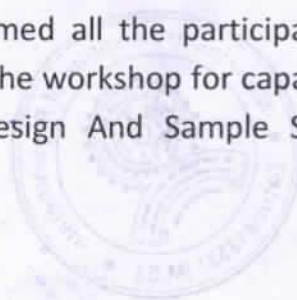

Total Participants: 94.

Initiation of the event started with inaugural ceremony which included welcoming and introduction of the dignitaries by Dr Neha S Mandade (Assistant Professor MIPCOPT). The session was chaired by the dignitaries Dr. Sarita Mantri (Academic and Administrative Director), Dr N. A. Jamadar (Dean MIMSR), Dr. M. Bhise (Prof. & HOD Dept. Of Comm. Med.), Mr Sarvanand (Principal MINSR Nursing college) & , Dr Pallavi Dangat (Professor MIP Latur). Felicitation of the dignitaries on the dias and guest speakers were done by faculties of MIPCOPT Latur.

Dr Mukund Bhise welcomed all the participants and expressed best wishes for the fruitful results of the workshop for capacity building and greater understanding of the Study Design And Sample Size Determination. The session was started by Dr. Anant Takalkar, professor, department of Community Medicine. He emphasized on the importance of learning about Research Methodology by the U.G, P.G. Guides, and students.

Dr. Anant Takalkar delivered a lecture on the study designs. Both observational and experimental designs were discussed in detail. The importance of case report, case series, cross sectional study, longitudinal study, qualitative study and ecological study was emphasized. In addition, the steps in descriptive epidemiology were explained. Common source single exposure/multiple exposure epidemic and propagated epidemic, periodic fluctuations, geographical variations, spot mapping and person specific characteristics were also discussed. The requirements for development of hypothesis, uses of descriptive studies were also deliberated upon. The design of cross sectional study, methods for calculation of prevalence and benefits & limitations of this study were discussed. Randomized Controlled Trial, importance of randomization, importance of blinding, consent was discussed briefly.

The presentation was followed by group activity jointly conducted by Dr. M. Bhise and Dr. Takalkar for all the participants, focussed on designing research question and Identifying type of study design. He also clarified relevant queries of the participants in the question answer session.

Dr. Mukund Bhise took a session on Basics of sample size estimation. In which he described the importance of sample size in the study. He also emphasized on the usefulness, feasibility, novelty, relevance, ethical issues, social usefulness, costing and eco-friendly status of research. The issues related to the potential problems and solutions related to the selection of the research question were also discussed. Consultation with experts, learning the skills and collaboration with colleagues is important for the conduct of quality study.” The session was followed by questions and answers related to sample size, control characteristics and study limitations.

The post-lunch sessions started with the presentation of Dr Satish Wadde, Associate Professor of Department of Community Medicine, Government Medical College, and Latur on the “Sample Size Estimation using Excel based application” Data. He cited examples for emphasizing the need of good study design and better sample size calculation. It was stressed to identify correctly the type of data (qualitative/quantitative, discrete/continuous, and nominal/ordinal). Thereafter, an exercise was done for identification of type of data and scale of measurement. He told that the ‘Estimate, Association, Effect and Comparison’ are measured through the use of data. The use of ‘Statulator’ for Sample size calculation was also briefed. The calculation was explained through simple examples.

At the end of the day, group activity was jointly conducted by Dr. Satish Wadde, Dr. Anant Takalkar and Mr. Tandale. Each group discussed among itself and came out with research questions, aims & objectives, related hypothesis, reasoning for selection of the topic, study design and Sample size calculation details of the dependent and independent variables. Each group presented their study followed by detailed discussion on type, feasibility and study design and sample size.

The workshop concluded with the vote of thanks by Dr. Gaurav Bhatnagar PT (Prof. and HOD, MSKPT Dept.). Feedback link was sent to all the participants on their Email and their responses were obtained. E-certificates were mailed to the participants.
